Refund Policy

Community education reserves the right to cancel any activity due to insufficient enrollment. When an activity is cancelled, Community Education will make every effort to contact registrant 48 hours before the scheduled start of the activity. Complete refunds will be given when this occurs.

Persons who wish to withdraw their registration must do so no later than two business days before the activity is scheduled to start. There is a $5 per class service fee. Please remember, if you are unable to attend a class, you may send someone in your place.

Absolutely no refunds will be made after 48 working hours prior to the start of an activity. No refunds will be made for trips and tours after the registration deadline. There are no exceptions.

Independent School District 191 has contracted with eTech Transaction Solutions, Inc. to collect funds for returned checks. All returned checks are forwarded directly to eTech from our bank. The policies of eTech will determine any charges related to the returned checks.
